Child 1	"We were running past and then this dog woke up and just started barking at us and chased us – she is scary and we want her to go away. That is why we started throwing stones at her."
Dalitso	"Dogs will chase you if you disturb them when they are eating, sleeping or feeding their puppies or if you run in front of them. They bark to tell us how scared or threatened they feel. You should not hit and hurt them. Put your hands behind your back or crossed over your chest, stand still, do not scream and look away. Scooby will go away and you will be safe."

Mother	"What is wrong Dalitso? Why are you bleeding?"
Dalitso	"Mother, I was bitten by a dog. It was behaving very strangely. I was not bothering him, mother. I was very scared, but I did not run or scream. I made sure to protect my head and my neck, so the dog was only able to bite my leg."
Mother	"It was behaving strangely? I worry the dog may have rabies."
Dalitso	"What is rabies, Mother?"
Mother	"Rabies is a deadly disease. It is found in the saliva of infected animals. It can enter people's body when a dog with rabies scratches, licks or bites you. Even a little scratch can be dangerous. Once the virus enters the body, it attacks the brain. The person or animal will have difficulty eating, drinking water and walking. Without treatment, it causes death. It has to be treated immediately—there is no cure once the virus has reached the brain."
Dalitso	"That sounds serious Mother, how can we treat it?"
Mother	"We will need to act fast and follow these three steps. Step 1: Scrub the scratch or bite wound with soap and running water for 15 minutes to remove the saliva. Step 2: Apply antiseptic, like Dettol or spirits, to clean the wound. Step 3: We must go to the hospital straight away, for five injections. These 5 injections will protect you."
Dalitso	"How can we protect Scooby?"
Mother	"Scooby is already safe. She received a rabies vaccine this year. The rabies vaccine protects dogs for up to a year. If a vaccinated dog is bitten, they remain healthy and safe. If the dogs are vaccinated it means that we are also protected from the disease. Veterinary doctors can help us stay protected from rabies by vaccinating the dogs."
Dalitso	"Let's make sure all of the dogs in our village are vaccinated so everyone can be safe from rabies!"
